

Persuasive Writing Outline

Pages 247-255

- I. Persuasive writing makes an _____. It is meant to _____ you to do, _____, or think about what the writer wants you to _____, say, or think. Persuasive writing can ask you to:
  - a. Take _____
  - b. _____ a cause
  - c. Consider an _____
  - d. _____ money
  - e. _____ an opinion
- II. Before Reading
  - a. Begin looking for the _____ and the author's main point or _____ about it.
  - b. The writer's opinion is called the _____.
  - c. A viewpoint is a statement of _____ that the author wants to explain and then _____.
  - d. Persuasive writing organization
    - i. Introduction with _____
    - ii. Supporting details
    - iii. Conclusion
  - e. Or
    - i. Introduction
    - ii. Supporting details
    - iii. Conclusion with _____.
  - f. Preview checklist
    - i. The _____ or headline
    - ii. The first _____.
    - iii. Any repeated _____, phrases or sentences.
  - g. Reading Strategy: Reading _____

III. During Reading

- a. Don't rush to a _____ about how you _____ about an argument before you are sure what the argument is.
- b. Every good argument is made up of _____ parts.
  - i. Viewpoint
    1. This is a statement of _____ that the author wants to _____ and _____.
    2. It is also called the "_____ statement" or "_____."
  - ii. _____
    1. This is the facts, _____, statistics, and examples used to support the assertion.
  - iii. _____ Viewpoint
    1. Every argument has _____ sides.
    2. The writer must _____ how readers might _____ to his or her views and then answer those objections.
- c. The three parts of an argument can appear in any _____.

IV. After Reading

- a. Think back about the _____.
- b. What's your _____?
- c. Does it _____ to your life?
- d. Has it _____ your own view of the subject?
- e. _____ with the writing.
- f. Evaluate the _____.
  - i. The viewpoint must be _____, convincing.
- g. Decide how you _____.
  - i. Form your own _____ about it.